On why our Church is Safe from Vandals

The Rectory
St James the Least of All

My dear Nephew Darren,

I was sorry to hear that your church was broken into last week. Since your sound system rivals that of any concert hall and your projection equipment would put most cinemas to shame, it is not surprising that is what they had their sights on. Your bemusement that they never touched your library of recordings is less understandable. I would have thought that few thieves would have been much interested in renditions of ‘Shine Jesus, Shine’ and other such artistic gems.

It may have been an act of Christian charity to put a sign outside saying ‘Thieves will be forgiven’, although since they took this as an invitation to burgle your house the following evening, I hope your forgiveness still operates. Especially as they also stole your favourite guitar.

Last year, we had unwelcome visitors. The thieves must have spent several hours breaking down the church’s 400-year-old oak door to get in. Shame about that. Had they bothered to try the handle, they would have discovered that we never lock the church anyway.

Since we have yet to leap forward into the 19th century, there was little to attract them. Had they removed the marble sarcophagi of the Earls of Lincombe, the money they may have made wouldn’t even have paid for the subsequent hernia operations. Inevitably, there was general outrage that the poor box had been broken into – although as far as I can remember, for many years it had contained nothing more than an old three-penny piece and a button.

For many of our congregation, this represented the End of Civilisation as We Know It. Calls were made to have a permanent armed guard on the premises, and a few even speculated about the possibility of having strategically placed land mines about the place. Mrs Beaufort offered to lend us her fierce Pekingese, and Colonel Beauchamp generously offered us his collection of man traps.

Perhaps our thieves may be forgiven their crime, but until that three-penny piece and button are returned, it will not be forgotten.

Your loving uncle,

Eustace

A Plea to the Community of All Saints Church

A warm welcome awaits you whenever you wish to visit our beautiful Grade 1 listed 12th Century Church. Here at All Saints Church Aston we have Services every Sunday and during the week for those people who wish to extend their faith, or cannot make our Sunday Services.

We welcome the residents of our Community. Many of our children visit and play under supervision at our various organised groups. Many of these groups and services are highlighted in this Monthly Parish Magazine.

Our church is run by the Parochial Church Council of All Saints Aston, which comprises elected members of the Congregation, Clergy and Licensed Lay members. The PCC meets every month to discuss our finances and how our money should be spent to benefit and improve our church.

These meetings cover matters from the day to day running of our church, to the safety of every person who enters our church, and the ongoing repairs and maintenance needed to ensure our church is fit for purpose.

We receive many wonderful testaments from visitors who visit our church; from those who have been to a Service, a Wedding, a Baptism, a Funeral or just decided to look around our Church when in the area or staying at Aston Hall Hotel.

Like many other organizations, our Church continues to have challenges to maintain the fabric of the building and the requirements for our Church and Community's future.

We are grateful to members of our congregation and friends who donate to assist in all that we try to do in the development and the continuing pathway work of our Church. These donations are made by a monthly bank direct debit, a weekly envelope scheme or by cash in the collection tray. All monies are used to help in the running of our church.

We hope you too would like to consider becoming part of the continuation of our work and the future of our Church by donating whatever you feel you can afford. Being a charity, if you are a tax payer each £1.00 donation you give attracts 25p from the government, which as you can understand is of great help to us.

If you would like further information on how you can help by making a monthly bank direct debit donation, by weekly envelope contribution, or a one off donation to our church we would be very grateful for you to contact our Gift Aid Secretary or our Admin Assistant.

About 700AD the people of Aston embraced Christianity and built a church: probably of wattle and wood. After the Norman Conquest in 1066 the Norman Lord erected a Hall and rebuilt the Church in Stone.

You wait for us

You wait for us until we are open to You.
We wait for Your word to make us receptive.
Attune us to Your voice, to Your silence.
Speak and bring Your son to us –
Jesus, the word of Your peace.

Your word is near, O Lord our God,
Your grace is near.
Come to us then, with mildness and power.
Do not let us be deaf to You,
but make us receptive and open to Jesus Christ Your Son,
who will come to look for us and save us
Today and every day,
for ever and ever.

22nd July - Mary Magdalene ; The Other Mary

As the traditional Easter story is remembered again this month, you may notice that there is one name that frequently occurs. It is that of the ‘other’ Mary – not the mother of Jesus but Mary of Magdala, who stood by her at the cross and became the first human being, male or female, actually to meet the risen Christ. That’s quite a record for a woman who, the Gospels tell us, had been delivered by Jesus from ‘seven devils’. As a result, her devotion to Him was total and her grief at His death overwhelming.

In church history Mary Magdalene became the ‘fallen woman’, a harlot who was rescued and forgiven by Jesus. And while there is no evidence to prove she was a ‘fallen woman’, the contrast is sublime: Mary the virgin mother, the symbol of purity and Mary Magdalene, the scarlet woman who was saved and forgiven, the symbol of redemption. Surely, we all fall somewhere between those two extremes.

What we do know is that the two Marys stood together at the cross, the Blessed Virgin and the woman rescued from who knows what darkness and despair.

The second great moment for her was as unexpected as it was momentous. She had gone with other women to the tomb of Jesus and found it empty. An angelic figure told them that Jesus was not there, He had risen – and the others drifted off. But Mary stayed, reluctant to leave it like that. She became aware of a man nearby, whom she took to be the gardener. She explained to Him that the body of ‘her Lord’ had been taken away and she didn’t know where to find Him.

The man simply said her name ‘Mary’ and she instantly realised it was Jesus. She made to hug Him, but He told her not to touch Him because His resurrection was not yet complete. She was, however, to go to the male disciples and tell them she had met Him. She did – but they couldn’t believe her.

Her words – ‘I have seen the Lord’ – echo down the centuries, the very beating heart of the Christian gospel.

31st July - St Joseph of Arimathea, the man who buried Jesus

Have you ever suffered from gossip? Ever discovered that people are saying some really wild things about you? If so, Joseph of Arimathea would understand – and sympathise with you. This decent, godly man of the gospels seems to have fired the imaginations of all sorts of odd people down the centuries.

Joseph was a rich, prominent member of the ruling Jewish council – the Sanhedrin. Mark’s gospel describes him as having been ‘waiting for the kingdom of God’ for years, and even being a secret disciple of Jesus. He played no part in the trial or crucifixion.

When Jesus was pronounced dead, Joseph had the seniority needed to approach Pilate for the body – and get it. Near to where Jesus had been crucified there was a garden, and in the garden a new tomb, cut deep in the rock. Joseph himself already owned it – and it was still new and empty. So Joseph laid Jesus there, and wrapped him in a linen cloth, according to Jewish burial custom. Joseph did not bury Jesus alone – Nicodemus helped him, while some women who had followed Jesus trailed miserably behind.

Matthew tells us that the last thing Joseph did for Jesus was to sadly roll a big stone across the entrance to the tomb, and then go away. With that, Joseph passes out of history – and into legend. For in the centuries that followed, Joseph was swept up into the Legend of the Holy Grail, the Legend of Glastonbury, and even bits of the Arthurian legends. It was said that the Holy Thorn, which flowers at Christmas, had sprung from his staff.

The mind boggles at what Joseph would have made of it all. One suspects he would have preferred to stick to the simple, but far better, true story: as having had the immense, unique privilege of laying the body of Jesus Christ in the tomb. Even if Jesus didn’t stay very long!

Walking in Time

The term 'industrial archaeology' might not have the same immediate appeal as visiting Roman ruins or an ancient castle. There was, of course, a Roman fort at Templeborough and you can see various interesting relics from that, including some of the columns from its Granary at Rotherham's Clifton Park Museum. There are also several castles in the area, the best preserved being Connisbrough, recently renovated by English Heritage, and Tickhill. The Norman invaders had to build lots to pacify the unhappy population. There are countless other castle related hills, humps and bumps locally including at Kimberworth, Laughton-en-le-Morthen and Thorne.

As for industrial archaeology it is amusing when 'a dig' starts on 'a site' you can remember before it was demolished. It is also not all about old factories and 'works'. Readers might enjoy the Heritage Trails described at www.mosboroughhistory.co.uk, the website of Mosborough History Meeting Group, with printable guides. The walk 'Waterwheels, Woodland and Wildlife' takes a couple of hours as a 'round walk' depending upon your walking speed and how long you pause. On a warm sunny, spring day there is plenty of pleasant dappled light through the trees and the invigorating smell of wild garlic as nice counterpoints to spotting industrial remains.

The pretty walk through woodland and fields includes the remains of cottages and a corn mill, woods planted on a former ash pit and 'Penny Engine Lane', the site of a colliery railway where people could pay an old penny to take a ride. There are some possible Roman defences and 'Seldom Seen' engine house where there was once a steam powered beam engine. The track takes you across a wooden bridge over the river Moss where you can see what is left of Carlton Dam. The Moss was the power behind a sickle making industry as well as the corn mill and cutlery grinding. You can see the remains of the mighty Fields Wheel Dam which once spanned the valley bottom and the, curiously named, 'Never Fear Dam. Several iron works, including Cowleys, Turners and Staniforths operated here, using local charcoal for smelting.

You can also see a neat cutting for a tramway and a small stone quarry. Then there is a fascinating World War Two 'Starfish Site'. In 1939 engineer, and retired Colonel, John Turner was charged with constructing decoy sites to mislead German bombers. Apart from creating daytime dummy aircraft, airfields and factories, 'night decoys' were established. Knowing that the first wave of bombers might well start fires 'Special Fire' sites, where flames were deliberately sent into the air, were used to impersonate the aftermath of a successful raid. The second wave of German bombers would then hopefully, bomb that fiery nothingness missing their actual target. The Moss Valley Starfish Site was one of 237 protecting 13 towns and cities by 1945. Historian Colin Dobinson suggests that Starfish Sites, just like Moss Valley, diverted 968 tons of German bombs. So, Moss Valley may have helped save lives. The History Group should be commended for its hard work!

The Summer Garden

Summer comes and waves her hand,
The garden blooms at her command,
Plants abounding everywhere
As fragrant perfumes fill the air.
Roses, geraniums, lilies too
Agapanthus with globes of blue,
Sumptuous colours in such array,
Their beauty takes our breath away.
To sit beneath the shady trees,
To listen to the humming bees,
As Summer wears her rainbow dress
We thank God for such loveliness.

Aston Hall and the Bishop's Appeal Fund

The following article appeared in the Sheffield Daily Telegraph on Saturday 11th June 1932.

Travellers on the Handsworth to Lindrick road get a glimpse of the grounds of Aston Hall through the gates at the bend of the road. They see little of the Hall, but many admire the pretty corner, with its old church and fine trees.

On Saturday, June 18th, there will be an opportunity of seeing the fine Hall at closer quarters, as a fête organised by the Handsworth Deanery will be held there in aid of the Bishop's Appeal Fund. Mr and Mrs Ronald Matthews have lent the grounds of the Hall before for smaller efforts, but on this occasion the fête is to be a large one and the attractions many. There will be shows of all kinds, and entertainment for everyone, but many will prefer to linger on the lawn surrounding the Hall to enjoy the wide view of the fields and woodlands, which is so lovely at this time. The Hall stands grey against a vivid background of the freshest green.

We read of Aston Manor and the church in Hunter's "Hallamshire". The first reference being in the history of the 12th century, when the writer refers to many manors in the neighbourhood which are furnished with churches. Again, we read that the manor was included in the Furnival estates, because it was part of the dowry of the second wife of Thomas Furnival. The present Hall has no claim to great antiquity, two halls on practically the same site having been burned down.

Aston Hall, as we know it, was built by John Carr, an architect, of York, in 1757. It is of Roche stone, and is, as can be seen by the photograph, a fine building. It belonged to the Verelst family until it was bought by Mr Matthews some five years ago.

Mrs Matthews has made the Hall a very lovely place, and her knowledge of antiques has enabled her to obtain some very fine pieces, which look well in the spacious rooms.

Many readers will know the ballroom, which Mrs Matthews occasionally uses for a meeting room. It is an attractive room, long, high, with windows forming a wide view. The Venetian red of the covers of the antique chairs and settees give a lovely bit of colour and one can imagine the room looking beautiful at night, when the lights accentuate the colourings.

On the first floor also is the smaller room, where there are many lovely sewn work pictures and other treasures, and on the staircase are two very fine Chinese vases of a pretty blue green which go so well with the neutral tints of the carpets. The light from the window is reflected in the lovely woodwork of an old bureau, and a short stair giving to the open floor shows a carpet of a soft shade of purple, which adds a note of colour to the picture of a lovely home.

The library, with its French windows opening on to the smooth lawns, and the dining room, with its fine old tables – and, indeed every room one enters seem to add still more to the dignity and beauty of Aston Hall – one of the lovely old manors of the neighbourhood of Sheffield.

When making arrangements for next Saturday, remember the fete at Aston Hall; so few people know it, and it is their loss. Motorists reach it on the Handsworth-Lindrick road, and there will be ample parking accommodation. Others can reach it by the normal bus service, which is frequent, and if it should rain there will be cover for all.

ALL SAINTS ASTON NOTICEBOARD

PLATINUM JUBILEE PARTY

Very Many Thanks to all those who came to celebrate at our Platinum Jubilee Party at All Saints on 11th June. The weather was kind and we were in good spirits, and fine voice, especially all the excellent karaoke performers. Our Events team really appreciates your support in making all our parties and concerts etc. go with a swing !

Thanks also to ALL those who helped to set up the karaoke and music, fix the bunting and decorations, prepare all the food and our special Jubilee Cake, arrange the publicity and run the stalls on the day, not to mention all the post-party tidying up team.

Winners of the Platinum Jubilee Quiz were Paul Mokes, Claire Mwangi and Ann and Beccy Mason. Answers available on request or can be found at the back of church.

We managed to raise £ 220 for church funds which is also very much appreciated.

Thanks again, and watch out for our next singing event- hopefully in September.
